Application for Senior Digital Performance & Social Media Manager

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Senior Digital Performance & Social Media Manager position advertised by LHH. With over 15 years of experience in digital marketing and a proven track record in driving performance through paid social channels, I am confident in my ability to lead and scale your client's global paid social strategy.

My experience aligns perfectly with the core requirements of this role. I possess deep technical expertise in Meta Business Manager, having designed and executed numerous performance-driven campaigns across Facebook and Instagram. In my previous roles, I consistently focused on optimizing campaign structures, audience segmentation, and budget allocation to maximize ROI, achieving significant results in areas like increased traffic and conversions. I also bring hands-on experience with Google Analytics and performance tracking tools, enabling me to translate complex data into actionable insights for continuous optimization.

Beyond paid social, I understand the importance of integrating paid efforts with organic content and influencer strategies. I have experience providing strategic guidance for organic social media and ensuring alignment with overarching marketing objectives, as well as collaborating with content and creative teams. My background includes managing significant media budgets, ranging from $15K to $2M, and leading teams, which has honed my ability to act as a strategic lead rather than an executor.

I am particularly drawn to this opportunity because of its emphasis on a performance-first mindset combined with brand storytelling. My analytical, data-driven approach, coupled with a collaborative spirit, allows me to effectively work with creative profiles and guide teams toward achieving key performance indicators. I am eager to bring my expertise in paid social, digital performance, and campaign orchestration to benefit your client.

Thank you for considering my application. I am enthusiastic about the possibility of contributing to your client's success and welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can meet your needs. I look forward to hearing from you soon.
